Old Mill Museum Smithsonian Traveling Exhibit Volunteers Needed.

The Old Mill Museum needs volunteers for the Smithsonian Traveling Exhibit Crossroads: Change in Rural America. The Crossroads exhibit will be at the Old Mill Museum, Dundee from September 7 to October 13, 2019. Hours of the exhibit will be Saturday through Thursday 12-5 pm and Friday 12-8 pm. One volunteer will be needed in each of the three exhibit areas for each hours the exhibit is open. Volunteer hours are Saturday through Thursday 12-2:30 pm & 2:30-5 pm and Friday 12-3 pm, 3-6 pm & 6-8 pm. An Old Mill Staff person will be available to assist the volunteers, answer questions and provide guided tours upon request.

Exhibit volunteer areas:

Timeline Room volunteer will greet visitors, give a short history of the museum, direct visitors to the various exhibits, ask visitors to sign the guest register and complete a survey of the Crossroads exhibit. The history of the museum will be provided to the volunteer

Crossroads Exhibit volunteer will greet visitors and interact with the visitors regarding the Crossroads exhibit. A Crossroads handbook will be provided for volunteer information.

Kid's Corner (Timeline Room) volunteer will oversee small children in a safe environment while parents view the exhibits. Age appropriate activities will be provided to entertain the children. This can be a set down job.

To volunteer stop in the Old Mill Museum, 242 Toledo Street, Dundee, call (734) 529-8596 or email: museum@dundeeoldmill.com.
